ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must meet specific requirements to qualify for the affordable rental unit. Individuals who have a financial interest in the development and their families are not eligible. Disabled persons are entitled to request reasonable accommodations of rules, policies, or services or to request a reasonable modification of the housing.

Income Eligibility

In order to be eligible to rent an affordable unit at Residences at the Mount Pleasant Schoolhouse, annual income and the derived income from assets must be within the guidelines listed below. For information regarding the definition of income and assets please see the attached, APPENDIX I:

Maximum Income

Eligible applicants must have a combined annual household income from all sources, for all income-earning members of the household, of not more than 80% of area median income, as defined by HUD and adjusted for household size. Income limits are subject to change and will be updated whenever HUD issues new limits. According to the 2018 HUD Income Guidelines, 80% of the area median income for Plymouth, MA, and therefore the maximum allowable household income is as follows*:

Household Size	Maximum Income
1	$62,450
2	$71,400
3	$80,300
4	$89,200

*Income limits are subject to change

Minimum Income

The household income must be sufficient for the unit to be affordable to the household. Specifically, the monthly rent plus utilities must not equal more than 30% of the household’s gross income. When utilities are paid for by the tenant, a factor approved by the Massachusetts Department of Housing and Community Development is assigned. The utility factor for this 2-BR unit is $248. The landlord is responsible for trash, water and sewer, and hot water. The tenant is responsible for heat, cooking, and electricity.

Assets

Although there is no specific asset limit, assets are given an imputed income value that is used in calculating the applicant’s income. The higher of the actual income from the assets or an imputation at .06% of the assets exceeding $5,000 is counted towards the income limit.

In addition, if any member of the household owns a home, that home must be sold prior to entering into this lease according to the time schedule listed below. An applicant cannot own another home, including in trust.

LEASE PROVISIONS

The form of lease for the unit is attached. Please read it carefully. The lease is for 1 year and stipulates:

- The tenant may not be evicted for any reason other than substantial violation of a material provision of the lease.
- The tenant shall be given a minimum of 60 days written notice that the lease will not be renewed.
- The tenant is required to furnish annual information sufficient to determine and document continued compliance with the income eligibility requirements.
- The tenant shall furnish the names and the number of people in the household and their relationship to one another annually and whenever a change to the household occurs.
- The first month’s rent will be due at lease signing. The last month’s rent will be due at occupancy. The security deposit may be paid in over the first 5 months of the lease term.

HOUSEHOLD SIZE

Household size should be appropriate for the number of bedrooms in the home.

A “household” shall mean two or more persons who will live regularly in the unit as their primary residence and who are related by blood, marriage, law or who have otherwise evidenced a stable inter-dependent relationship, or an individual.

Household size shall not exceed the Massachusetts State Sanitary Code requirements. (105 CMR 400).

APPLICANTS SELECTED TO RENT THE AFFORDABLE UNIT

Applications will be drawn for the unit at the lottery and will be numbered in the order that they are selected and used to create a master list. The unit will be offered to the first applicant on the list. The list will be retained and used as a waiting list with the unit being offered to households in that order if the initial tenants falls through.

Upon final approval notification, the applicant will have two weeks to sign the Lease with an occupancy date of no more than 30 additional days from the signing. Selected applicants who are unable to proceed within those time frames will forfeit their right to lease and the next applicant in the order selected by the Lottery will be offered the unit.

APPENDIX I

DEFINITION OF INCOME

Annual gross income means all amounts, monetary or not, which go to, or on behalf of, the family head or spouse or to any other family member received from a source outside the family during the 12-month period following application.

Annual income includes but is not limited to:

1. The full amount, before any payroll deductions, of wages and salaries, overtime pay, commissions, fees, tips, and bonuses, and other compensation for personal services.
2. The net income from the operation of a business or profession. Expenditures for business expansion or amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be used as deductions in determining net income. An allowance for depreciation of assets used in a business or profession may be deducted, based on straight line depreciation, as provided in Internal Revenue Service regulations. Any withdrawal of cash or assets from the operation of a business or profession will be included in income, except to the extent the withdrawal is reimbursement of cash or assets invested in the operation by the family.
3. Interest, dividends, and other net income of any kind from real or personal property. Expenditures for amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be used as deductions in determining net income. An allowance for depreciation is permitted as provided by the Internal Revenue Service regulations.
4. The full amount of periodic amounts received from Social Security, annuities, insurance policies, retirement funds, pensions, disability or death benefits, and other similar types of periodic receipts, including a lump-sum amount that is the delayed start of a periodic payment.
5. Payment in lieu of earnings, such as unemployment and disability compensation, worker's compensation, and severance pay.
6. Periodic and determinable allowances, such as alimony and child support payments, and regular contributions or gifts received from organizations or from persons not residing in the dwelling.
7. All regular, special pay, and allowances of a member of the Armed Forces.
8. Income derived from assets to which any member of the family has access.

Annual Income Does NOT include the following:

1. Income from employment of children (including foster children) under the age of 18 years.
2. Payments received for the care of foster children or foster adults. (usually persons with disabilities, unrelated to the tenant family, who are unable to live alone)

3. Lump-sum additions to family assets, such as inheritances, insurance payments (including payments under health and accident insurance and worker's compensation), capital gains, and settlement for personal or property losses.
4. Amounts received by the family that are specifically for, or in reimbursement of, the cost of medical expenses for any family member.
5. Income of a live-in-aid.
6. The full amount of student financial assistance paid directly to the student or to the educational institution.
7. The special pay to a family member serving in the Armed Forces who is exposed to hostile fire.
8. Temporary, nonrecurring, or sporadic income such as gifts.
9. Deferred periodic amounts from Supplemental Social Security income and Social Security benefits that are received in a lump sum amount or in prospective monthly amounts.
10. Amounts paid by a state agency to a family with a member who has a developmental disability and is living at home to offset the cost of services and equipment needed to keep the developmentally disabled family member at home.
11. Amounts specifically excluded by any other Federal statute from consideration as income for the purpose of determining eligibility or benefits under a category of assistance program.

DEFINITION OF ASSETS

The value of necessary items of personal property, such as furniture or automobiles shall be excluded. Determination of assets shall be based upon a full and fair cash value of the asset at the time of application to the program. If a potential purchaser divests himself or herself of an asset for less than full and fair present cash value of the asset within two years prior to application, the full and fair cash value of the asset at the time of its disposition must be declared and shall be included for the purpose of calculating eligibility.

Household Assets include the following:

1. Cash held in savings and checking accounts, safe deposit boxes, homes, etc. For savings accounts, use the current balance. For checking accounts, use the average balance for the last six (6) months.
2. Revocable trusts: The cash value of any revocable trust available to the applicant.
3. Equity in rental property or other capital investments: The current fair market value less (a) any unpaid balance on any loans secured by the property, and (b) reasonable cost that would be incurred in selling the asset (e.g., penalties, broker fees, etc.).
4. Stocks, bonds, treasury bills, certificates of deposit, mutual funds, and any money market accounts: The value of stocks and other assets vary from one day to another and should be determined no more than one month in advance of the applicant's submission to participate in the subject housing program.
5. Individual retirement, 401K, and Keogh accounts: When the holder has access to the funds, even though a penalty may be assessed. If the applicant is making occasional withdrawals from the account, determine the amount of the asset by using the average balance for the previous six (6) months. (Do not count withdrawals as income.)

6. Retirement and pension funds:

- a. While the person is employed: Amounts the applicant withdraws without retiring or terminating employment. Count the whole amount less any penalties or transaction costs.
- b. At retirement, termination of employment, or withdrawal: Periodic receipts from pension and retirement funds are counted as income. Lump sum receipts from pension and retirement funds are counted as assets. Count the amount as an asset or as income, as provided below. If benefits will be received in a lump sum, include the lump sum receipt in net household assets. If benefits will be received through periodic payments, include the benefits in annual income. Do not count any remaining amounts in the account as an asset.

If the applicant initially receives a lump-sum benefit followed by periodic payments, count the lump-sum benefit as an asset and treat the periodic payment as income. In subsequent years, count only the periodic payment as income. Do not count the remaining amount as an asset.

NOTE: This paragraph assumes that the lump-sum receipt is a onetime receipt and the it does not represent delayed periodic payments, then the account would be considered as income and not an asset.

7. Cash value of life insurance policies available to the applicant before death (e.g.; the surrendered value of whole life policy or a universal policy): Do not include a value for term insurance, which has no cash value to the applicant before death.
8. Personal property held as an investment: Gems, jewelry, coin collections, or antique cars held as investment. Personal jewelry is NOT considered an asset.
9. Lump-sum receipts or one-time receipts: Inheritance, capital gains, one-time lottery winnings, victim's restitution, settlement on insurance claims (including health and accident insurance, worker's compensation, and personal or property losses), and any other amounts that are not intended as periodic payments.
10. A mortgage or deed of trust held by an applicant: Payments on this type of asset are often received as one combined payment for principal and interest with the interest portion counted as income from the asset. This combined figure needs to be separated into the principal and interest portions of the payment. (This can be done by referring to an amortization schedule that relates to the specific term and interest rate of the mortgage.)
11. A life estate: A life estate is an interest in real property which entitles the life tenant to benefit from the property until his or her death. Usually, the life tenant is entitled to the use of a house for life and may be entitled to sell his or her interest. This right is of value to the tenant but is rarely sold on an open market. (Purchasers of real property would typically not be tempted by such an uncertain term of ownership.)

The value of an applicant's life estate is included when calculating his or her assets based on the Internal Revenue Service's latest guidance to determine the value of life estates. (See Internal Revenue Service Publication 1457, "Actuarial Values, Book Aleph," (7-1999).)

Household Assets DO NOT include the following:

1. Personal property (clothing, furniture, cars, wedding rings, other jewelry that is not held as an investment, vehicles specially equipped for persons with disabilities).
2. Interests in Indian trust land.
3. Term life insurance policies (i.e., where there is no cash value).
4. Equity in the cooperative unit in which the applicant lives.
5. Assets that are part of an active business: "Business" does NOT include rental of properties that are held as investments unless such properties are the applicant's main occupation.
6. Assets that are NOT effectively owned by the applicant: Assets are not effectively owned when they are held in an individual's name but (a) the assets and any income they earn accrue to the benefit of someone else who is not the applicant, and (b) that other person is responsible for income taxes incurred on income generated by the assets.
